

Voices of Canadian Youth

This one-day conference is for students in Grade 9-11 and includes a keynote and sessions with local storytellers. Students will get an opportunity to develop their own story and create action plans to make their own school communities more inclusive.

To register contact:

Students will learn how to:

- Explore the roles of personal and social identity
- Enhance understanding of the lived experience of discrimination, prejudice and stereotypes
- Increase awareness of cultural diversity, or cultural/racial/ethnic/religious issues affecting the full participation in Canadian society and the economy; and
- Take action to promote inclusion, diversity and social change.
