

Nutrition survey

The role of food in Indigenous education in the Yukon

YFNED and FNSB are talking with Indigenous people across the Yukon to learn about the role that food, cooking and nutrition has in your lives, families, communities and schools.

As providers of nutrition programs in schools and communities, we want to ensure we are delivering programming that aligns with your values.

yfned

fnsb

We want to hear from

- Elders and Knowledge Holders
- Indigenous youth (ages 16-25)
- Parents of Indigenous kids (aged 0-18)
- Education professionals that work with Indigenous students or those that work at FNSB schools

How you can participate

- Through focus groups
- Complete our survey at yfned.ca/nutrition
- Join our community meetings

When and Where

- Starting November 20–25 in Whitehorse and Carcross
- Community meetings in early 2024
- Also potential for zoom meetings as needed

Compensation

- Focus group participants will be provided with a $25 local gift card and meal
- Community meeting participants will be provided with a meal and a chance to win a $250 gift basket
- Draw prize for survey respondents

More information

To arrange a community meeting, please contact Aili.Fraser@yfned.ca

For more information about this engagement, email nutrition@yfned.ca or visit yfned.ca/nutrition